

Dear God,

Today we come before you to shout Hosanna, Hosanna in the Highest. Lord as we begin this Holy Week we thank you for your love and compassion and forgiveness.

We confess our need for you. It is not easy for us to understand your love because we find we do not offer the love we are commanded to give to others who need it. We need to be reminded that you work on behalf of those you love, constantly, powerfully, completely.

We need your healing and your grace.

We need hope restored.

Forgive us for trying to fix our situations all on our own.

Forgive us for running all different directions and spinning our wheels to find help, when true help and healing must be found first in You.

Forgive us for forgetting how much we need you, above everyone and everything else.

We come to you and bring you the places we are hurting. You see where no one else is able to fully see or understand. You know our pains, our burdens and our cares. You know where we need to be set free. We ask for your healing and grace to cover every broken place. Every wound. Every heartache.

Thank you that you are able to do far more than we could ever imagine.

Thank you for your Mighty Power that acts on behalf of your children.

We reach out to you, and know that you are restoring and redeeming every place of difficulty, every battle, for YOUR greater glory.

We love you. We need you today and forever. We pray to you our Lord and Our God In Jesus' Name, Amen.
